Hi [REDACTED],

I know - it is amazing isn't it! And it is a bit confusing because sometimes the stories had different names in the books; different from what they were introduced as on the radio show or called on the albums. The story about the Centennial Cup was released on the album called Vinyl Cafe: Seasons in 2015. The name of the story is "Whatever Happened to Johnny Flowers?". The one about road kill is called "Dave and Tommy" and is on Vinyl Cafe: Up & Away (2016).

I hope that helps!

Louise

Louise, I am shocked!

I read some "new" titles here and there, haven't you got a story called "Centennial Cup" or "Road Kill". Are these retitles of the 173 released stories?

Hi [REDACTED],

Sorry for taking so long to get back to you! I've been on vacation :)

Thank you for your interest but unfortunately there won't be a new CD this year. Would you believe it, we have no more stories to release, they have all been included on one of our many albums. Here's the full list: <https://vinylcafe.com/discography>

All the best,
Louise

Hey there,

I hope there will be a new CD this fall - November with new stories! If it's another 3 mini CD that would be fine, but if you eventually release a full collection of about 20, that would be amazing! You missed the 30th anniversary last year.
